- 1 Read the messages. What are Sam and David going to do this weekend?
Check ☒ the correct photos.

Dear Sam,

It's great that you're going to visit on Saturday. What time are you going to get here? We can meet you at the bus station.

I'm sorry, but we can't go to the beach because my parents are busy. They're going to work in the garden in the morning. My dad's going to cut some branches and my mom's going to pick up the leaves. Maybe we can help them? For lunch, we're going to have a picnic in the forest near our house. Don't forget to bring your boots!

Bye,

David

Hi, David!

That sounds great! I love walking in the forest and looking at insects. I'm going to bring my boots and my compass, too. OK? And yes, let's help your mom and dad.

I'm not going to take the bus. My mom's going to drive me to your house. We're going to be there at about ten o'clock and she's going to pick me up at eight o'clock in the evening.

See you on Saturday!

Sam

1 Read. What's Grandma's problem? Check ☒.

1 She doesn't have an oven. ☐

2 She wants to take a picture. ☐

3 She can't send a message. ☐

Grandma: Hi, Betty, what's that noise? Is that your brother?

Betty: Yes, it's Mike. He's cooking. He's putting a cake in the oven.

Grandma: Good. Sixty years ago, when I was little, I couldn't make cakes. We didn't have an oven.

Betty: You have one now, Grandma.

Grandma: I know and I love it! I made your favorite cookies yesterday.

Betty: Yummy! Sorry we couldn't visit you yesterday. We were at school.

Grandma: OK. Can you come now? I have a problem with my phone. I took a picture of the cookies yesterday and I couldn't send it to you.

Betty: Grandma, did you press "send"?

Grandma: Yes, I did! Sixty years ago, we didn't have smartphones, but we could send letters. That was easier.

Betty: Yes, you always say that. I'll come over after lunch. OK?
