What's happening?
Pearson.com recognizes you as an existing user. Either you have a Mathology.ca, Spark or other Pearson.com account.

Next Steps:

Enter your email address as your username.

1. Enter the password for a known Pearson.com account.

2. If password is unknown, click on the password reset link. You will receive an email from notifications@pearson.com. Check your junk/spam folders if it does not appear in your inbox.

Once you have your password, you can sign in and follow the next steps to activate your Spark account.
