

1 Read the dialog. What did Feng decide to order?

I'm with my dad. I'm at a Japanese restaurant for the first time! It's very exciting and the food is very different. We are really hungry.

Dad: What will you have to eat?

Feng: I don't know. Let me look at the menu.

Dad: I'll have the sushi, I think. I love Japanese food.

Feng: I won't have sushi. Can I have a sandwich?

Dad: No! We're in a Japanese restaurant. You can have sushi, noodles, or tofu. You can have chili chicken soup! They'll bring you anything from the menu.

Feng: I'll just have something simple, like fish sticks.

Dad: They don't have fish sticks!

Feng: OK. I'll have the noodles. Maybe I'll try the sushi next time!

Dad: What would you like to drink?

Feng: I'll have some lemonade, please.

Dad: Will you use the chopsticks?

Feng: I'll try!

2 Read and write Yes or No.

- 1 Feng won't have the sushi. ....
- 2 Dad likes Japanese food. ....
- 3 Feng won't try to use chopsticks. ....
- 4 Dad will have the steak. ....
- 5 Feng would like fish sticks. ....

3 Read again and underline sentences with will and won't.

4 Circle the correct answer.

- 1 What will / we'll you have to eat in the restaurant?
- 2 I think I'll not / I won't have the chicken soup for dinner.
- 3 What will you / won't you have to drink?
- 4 We'll / We won't have some noodles because we love them!
- 5 We will / won't eat in the restaurant today. We'll eat at home.
- 6 Will she use the fork? Yes, she won't. / Yes, she will.

Grammar

I/You/He/She/It will have the sushi.	I/You/He/She/It won't have the sushi.
We/You/They will have fish sticks.	We/You/They won't have fish sticks.
will = 'll	will not = won't
Will you try to use the chopsticks?	Yes, I will . No, I won't .

5 What's different about these sentences?

- 1 I often have a glass of milk with my lunch.
- 2 I'm thirsty. I'll have a glass of milk with my lunch.
- 3 We have a pizza for dinner on Saturdays.
- 4 We need a treat. We'll have a pizza tonight!

Circle the right answer.

We use will to talk about instant decisions / things we do regularly.

6 Put the words in order.

- 1 to drink you have What will

?

- 2 have a I'll cup of tea

.

- 3 he have to eat What will

?

- 4 I have won't any noodles

.

- 5 go tomorrow She'll to school

.

- 6 We outside won't go because cold it's

.

7 What will you do? Write sentences using will and an activity from the box below.

study hard   stay at home   drink some water
eat a sandwich   go to the doctor

- 1 I'm hungry. ....
- 2 I'm thirsty. ....
- 3 I'm sick. ....
- 4 I have a test. ....
- 5 It's raining. ....

8

Read the text and choose the best answer.

Jada: Are you hungry, Sam?

Sam: A Yes, you are.

B Yes, he is hungry.

☒ C Yes, I'm starving!

1 Ciara: What will you have to eat?

Sam: A I have tomato soup.

B I'll have the tomato soup.

C I won't have any tomatoes.

2 Jada: I won't have too much. I think I'll have a tuna salad.

Ciara: A That sounds delicious!

B I won't do it.

C What's your favorite food, Jada?

3 Jada: What will you have to drink?

Sam: A I'll have a banana and some strawberries.

B I'll have the banana and strawberry smoothie.

C I won't have the banana and strawberry.

4 Jada: I think I'll get some of the homemade lemonade.

Sam: A Actually, I think I'll have lemonade, too. I won't have the smoothie.

B Actually, I think I'll have lemonade, too. I will have the smoothie.

C Actually, I think I'll have lemonade, too. I like smoothies.

5 Ciara: Great, are we ready to order?

Sam: A Yes, she's great.

B Yes, I'll wait.

C Yes, I'll call the waiter.

6 Jada: This food is delicious!

Ciara: A My sister doesn't like bananas.

B I won't take my sister here.

C It is! I'll bring my sister here tomorrow.