Title	- The name given to a text or section of a text. It gives the reader an idea of what the text is about.
Heading	- A descriptor that helps you to recognize a section of information. A subheading is used to label sections within a section.
Bulleted or numbered lists	- Lines introduced by a small shape, number, or letter. They may be items in a list, steps in a procedure, a set of examples, etc.
Illustrations	- Drawings (or sometimes photos) that accompany the text. They may be included to add visual interest, and they may also help support readers' understanding of the text's content.
Boldface	- Type that is darker and heavier than the rest of the type. This is often used for emphasis.
Italics	- Type that is slanted to the right. This may be used for emphasis. It may also be used for the title of a complete work, such as a book or poem.
