

Name:

Read each statement below and discuss whether it is fact or fiction.

- 1. Alzheimer's disease and dementia are the same thing.
- 2. Dementia can affect only people over the age of 65.
- 3. Dementia is not a normal part of getting older.
- 4. When a person with dementia mentions something from the past and thinks it is the present, you should correct them so they know the right facts.
- 5. Dementia cannot be cured.