

Pearson Saskatchewan Social Studies Grade 8 Table of Contents

Unit 1: Canada: Our Land

Unit question: How does the land and history affect Canadian identity?

Chapter 1: The Importance of Land to Canadians

Chapter question: How do relationships to the land affect Canadian identity?

- How do we identify with being “Canadian?”
- How have historical events shaped who we are as Canadians?
- How does Canada's role in world conflict shape the Canadian identity?

Chapter 2: Developing a Canadian Identity

Chapter question: How does Canada's history influence who we are today?

- How have different worldviews shaped our relationship with the land?
- What is the treaty relationship in Canada?
- What were the expectations and benefits of the treaties?
- Why are certain lands set aside in Canada?

Unit 2: Cultural Diversity

Unit question: How is the identity of Canadians influenced by culture?

Chapter 3: Our Cultural Identity

Chapter question: How do different aspects of culture shape the Canadian identity?

- What is culture?
- How is culture part of identity?
- What happens when cultures interact?

Chapter 4: Making Canada Home

Chapter question: How does immigration affect the Canadian identity?

- How have historical events influenced citizenship in Canada?
- How has the settlement of the west changed Canada?
- Why do people immigrate to Canada?
- How has the Canadian immigration policy changed over time?
- How do people become citizens of Canada?
- How does Canada's multicultural policy affect people?

Unit 3: Power and Authority Through Democracy

Unit question: How are decisions made in Canada?

Chapter 5: The Structure of Canadian Democracy

Chapter question: How do power and authority influence decision making?

- What is the purpose of government?
- What are some ways we make decisions in Canada?
- Who has the power and authority to make decisions in Canada?
- What is the process for creating or changing Canada's laws?
- How is Indigenous self-government being recognized in Canada?

Chapter 6: Involvement in the Political Process

Chapter question: How can Canadians influence decision-making in Canada?

- What are our privileges and duties as Canadian citizens?
- Why should Canadians participate in the political process?
- What obstacles prevent involvement in the political process?
- How can Canadians influence the political system of Canada?
- What are Canada's political parties?

Unit 4: Resources and Sustainability

Unit question: How does our culture influence how we use resources?

Chapter 7: Canada's Mixed Market Economy

Chapter question: How do consumer choices affect the economy of Canada?

- What type of economy does Canada have?
- What influences our shopping patterns?
- How do different views of ownership affect how Canadians use resources?

Chapter 8: Towards Responsible Consumerism

Chapter question: What choices must be made to ensure a healthy future for Canadians?

- How do consumer choices affect your life?
- Why should we care about global environmental issues?
- Are there solutions for our environmental challenges?
- Who should find solutions to create a sustainable Canada?