

Fiche 18

Plus de régularités croissantes

The dashed box contains three rows of patterns made of squares:

- Row 1: Four patterns. The first is a 2x2 square with a square below the center. The second is a 3x3 square with a square below the center. The third is a 4x4 square with a square below the center. The fourth is a 5x5 square with a square below the center.
- Row 2: Three patterns. The first is a 2x2 square with a square to the left of the top-left corner. The second is a 3x3 square with a square to the left of the top-left corner. The third is a 4x4 square with a square to the left of the top-left corner.
- Row 3: Three patterns. The first is a 2x1 vertical rectangle. The second is a 2x3 horizontal rectangle with a square above the center. The third is a 2x5 horizontal rectangle with a square above the center.