

Number

Master 103: Activity 42 Assessment

Financial Literacy: Goods and Services

Identifying Goods and Services Exchanged for Money Behaviours/Strategies
Student has difficulty identifying goods and services.	Student identifies goods and services but is unable to explain why they are goods and services.	Student has difficulty identifying the difference between goods and services, or struggles to understand that a store provides a service by making goods available for purchase.	Student identifies goods and services with ease and explains why they are goods and services.
Observations/Documentation			