

Credit or Debt?

Liam borrowed money from his sister to set up a lemonade stand. She used e-Transfer[®] to send him money so he could buy a sign, paper cups, and lemonade. Unfortunately, it rained all weekend. Liam will not be able to pay his sister back until the next sunny weekend.	Create your own scenario involving credit or debt involving an e-Transfer[®].
For delivering newspapers, Davon gets paid by automatic deposit every other Friday. On the same day, Davon has an automatic withdrawal to a savings account.	Create your own scenario involving debt where you borrow money using a credit card.
Vicky received a new pair of boots as a gift. The boots didn't fit, so she returned them to the store. Vicky was given a store gift card.	Create your own scenario involving credit where you are part of a loyalty program.