

Activity 1 Assessment

Recognizing Symmetry in First Nations Designs

Recognizing Symmetry in First Nations Regalia
Describes features of First Nations regalia “I see many colours, images, symbols, materials that are the same on both sides of powwow regalia.”	Identifies components of symmetry in First Nations regalia “Powwow regalia have symmetrical qualities that are created by shapes that mirror each other.”	Understands and describes the significance of First Nations powwow dance regalia. “First Nations powwow regalia symbolize connection to the natural world, cultural teachings, and traditions within the colours, designs, and dance.”	Identifies a symmetrical design that has personal meaning and significance. “Different designs can be used to share a story.”
Observations/Documentation			