Authors and Reviewers

David Bouchard, Series Editor

Acclaimed children's book author, David Bouchard, has written more than 50 books. This former teacher and school principal travels across the country to promote the importance and joy of reading and writing. In April 2009, he was named as a Member of the Order of Canada for his contributions as an author and an advocate who has championed the cause of reading and writing, and who has shared his pride as a member of the Métis community.

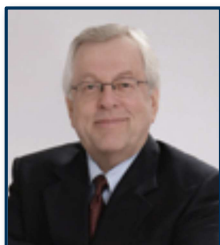

Robert Cutting, Series Editor

Robert Cutting has been an educator for over 34 years. He was a Program Consultant for the Durham Catholic DSB where he continues to be a member of the Aboriginal Education Advisory Circle. He has been an author of educational books since 1973, publishing over one hundred titles – from award-winning textbooks to stories for children of all ages. Robert is of Kanien'kehaka (Mohawk) ancestry.

Robyn Michaud-Turgeon, Series Editor

Robyn Michaud-Turgeon, M.Ed. (Anishinaabe) is a teacher, curriculum author and consultant specializing in ESL and Aboriginal Education. She has worked on several projects to promote Aboriginal perspectives across the curriculum and create culturally-relevant spaces for Aboriginal students within the public education system. She currently teaches for the Thames Valley District School Board and the University of Western Ontario.

David Booth, Literacy Consultant

David Booth is Professor Emeritus at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, where he has trained teachers to use innovative ways to promote literacy among children for more than 30 years. He is also the Elizabeth Thorn Chair of Literacy at Nippissing University. A popular international speaker, David has delighted thousands with his energy, enthusiasm, and commitment to all forms of literacy.
