Harvey “Smokey” Daniels and Nancy Steineke share powerful strategies for engaging students in challenging, meaningful reading of fiction and poetry using some of their favorite short, fresh texts—or, as they put it, “full-strength adult literature that gives us English majors a run for our interpretive money—but is still intriguing enough to keep teen readers digging and thinking.”

In the same teacher-friendly, classroom-wise voices that made Texts and Lessons for Content-Area Reading a bestseller, Daniels and Steineke provide:

- 65 reproducible mentor texts by new and seasoned writers
- 38 innovative, common-core-correlated lessons to teach close reading skills and comprehension strategies.

“The experiences provided in these 38 lessons parallel the readings and tasks recommended by the Common Core State Standards. The main difference is that our lessons put student curiosity and engagement first.”
